MEET GAIL, SHUMANI AND LIAM

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

by Jim Clarke

Do you know what the best part of February might be? It's a time to look forward to March and spring. Hopefully, there is a lot of dog training taking place so that those of us who are trialing can do so with confidence. OK! If we are showing a dog, there definitely is no confidence involved because our little beauties earn a score of 200 at home; but, when they are faced with a judge they can't seem to remember what the signal for "down" looks like. You have to admit that this sport, and our dogs, teaches us how to persevere.

Every Monday night I am given the golden opportunity to watch our three rings in action. While waiting for Joyce to finish assisting in the 6:00 Novice II class, not only can I visit with members and friends, I can watch our instructors in action. It always amazes me how involved and animated they become while teaching their classes. Teaching is a job they take very seriously. I would like to encourage everyone not signed up for a Puppy or Beginner Class to take advantage of our drop-in times. I promise you that you and your dog will benefit from the experience.

Our next General/Board meeting will be held Friday, February 22, 7:00. Place is still undetermined. If you are interested in hosting, please email me at: jaclarke134@comcast.net.

Welcome Gail Meyers to our Monday night training team. Gail will be assisting Joanie Wisniewski in the 6:00 CGC/Beginner Class. Gail is a very experienced dog trainer having taught the Beginner Class at the Lyons Dog Training Club for many years. It really makes me happy when we can add experienced instructors to our already amazing instructional staff. WELCOME GAIL!

I would like to Thank evaluator, Karen Schlipf and her "crowd" crew--Dan Harrington, Lee Melka, Bob Melka, Darlene Barnard, and Bette McMillan for once again being part of our third CGC evaluation which took place Monday, January 14. Our Star Puppy and Beginner Classes are designed to offer training that allows for the CGC evaluation. Another evaluation will be hosted in April.

YOU DESERVE IT! YOU'VE WORKED HARD FOR IT! YOU'VE SPENT A LOT OF MONEY DOING IT! You have trained your dog, you titled, and now you truly deserve an Award! I have been compiling the list of members who have met the requirements and will be receiving their much sought-after awards at our banquet on Saturday, March 9. Thank You Laura Setar for finalizing the arrangements. Our Annual Awards Banquet will be held at the Olive Garden Restaurant in Downers Grove. Venue, menu, and order form are all included in this issue of Barks and also on the website--GABOC.org. Even if you fell short of making your goal and aren't going to receive an award, the banquet is a nice way to congratulate those who did.

SPEAKING OF AWARDS, if you titled in 2018, don't forget to send your photos and listing of awards won to: Lee Melka 372 Woodlane Court Wood Dale, IL. 60191. This Special Awards Publication is for all members who have earned any titles on their dog in the year 2018. Please write the information on a separate slip of paper or send the information and picture electronically to r.melka@att.net. In the case of electronic information it will require an acknowledgment by Lee to confirm receipt of information. Deadline to Lee is February 6, 2019. The photo can be of you and your dog or of your dog alone. It may be a portrait or an action shot. This publication celebrates your accomplishments over the last year. Please participate by sending your photos to Lee by the deadline. Lee and Bob, thank you so much for this beautiful album.

Member Highlight~

Gail Meyers

Hello, my name is Gail Meyers, and I am brand new member of GABOC. The club is not new to me, as I have heard many of my “dog” friends speak of it highly. I have shown my dogs in their Obedience Trials many times. When I got my latest puppy, a Dalmatian, I was looking for different places to train her. My friend Karen Heitz suggested that I try Glenbard. Since I had Monday evenings free I took her up on her suggestion and I am very glad that I did.

My children worry about me as I live alone in the house and wanted a dog for protection, so Liam, my GSD came to live with me. Forty-eight years ago, my husband and I were gifted a 6-week-old Dalmatian puppy, Murphy, for our wedding. My love for the Dalmatian was born. We lived in Norfolk, VA, as John was in the Navy. He was on a ship that was out to sea more than it was in port. So, looking for something to do with my time I decided to obedience train my puppy. A class was offered on the main Naval Base for sailors and their spouses and I decided to give it a try. Although we did not trial, Murphy only lived 3 years, it was then I was bitten by the training bug.

Life happened along with a couple of children. While we always had a dog, I didn't have time to train as I would have liked. One day my husband came home with a Basset Hound with orders from the breeder that “we” take it to obedience class. My career as a dog trainer began. My breeders were members of Lyons Township so that is where, in 1980, I entered Beginners Class. That Basset was the first of 7 dogs that I put CD's on, 2 of which were not my own. Other titles that my dogs and I have earned are CH, RN, CGC, CDX, Pet Partner (therapy) and Star Puppy. And while we did have the Basset we also had a GSD that was a house pet and child's friend. He was very well trained but never titled.

Some years later a friend of mine called with an offer to take one of her English Setter pups. My husband overheard me tell her that while I truly loved the look of the English Setter, if I was ever going to get a dog that I would put that much time and effort into training and showing, I'd rather go through that with a Dalmatian. Murphy had been gone for about 8 years, but secretly I had always wanted another Dalmatian. We were at the Christmas shows in Rosemont when I happened across the Dalmatian ring and started to chat with the exhibitors. It was just my luck that a litter was due soon with bloodlines I really liked. I asked to be called when the pups were old enough so I could go and see them. Well, they called. We went! I returned home with Ben our number 2 Dalmatian! He was my first CDX dog and my first film dog. I tried for a bench championship but never quite made it. Ben was everyone's friend! There was not one mean bone in his body and he became first Therapy Dog at Lyons. When my boy crossed over the Rainbow Bridge the club changed their therapy group name from "Visiting Pets" to "Ben's Friends". We go to schools, senior residents, libraries, hospitals...anywhere that a friendly dog will put a smile on the face of a "special" child or a senior. We help a child gain confidence in their reading or just let people pet a nonjudgmental, friendly dog. It is a program that is very near and dear to my heart. Two Bassets, 6 Dalmatians and 3 GSD's later, I am actively working with both of my Obedience Clubs. We train and work hard to promote "a well-trained dog is a happy dog" to just about everyone we meet.

That's my training life, and here's a little bit about me personally. I am a widow with two adult children. My son, the oldest, lives in Lombard and is soon to be married. My daughter, the youngest, lives in LA and is single. I work as a freelance animal wrangler for Animal Talent of Chicago. We provide animals for film, both moving and still. So, if I ever ask any of you if you'd let me take your dog's photo it is because we are looking for that type of dog for a photo shoot. I'm not kidding! In my spare time (what's that??) I can usually be found sitting at my sewing machine, making quilts or doing some other work that requires needle and thread. I love to read, go to lunch with friends and do projects around the house. And, my mom, at 95.5, is still very much alive and well. However, she does still need my help. I spend time with her at her apartment or at doctor appointments. I count my blessings that she is still alive and well enough to still enjoy her life. I keep myself very busy . . . you know "So much to do, so little time." I feel it keeps me young and happy.

After several years of perseverance by both dog and handler and through times that I declared that I was giving up (well...for only 24 hours and then we'd be right back training) on January 12th at Land O' Lakes Golden Retriever Club All Breed Trials at Francis Field under wonderful Judge Masterson, Blue-Dog CDX RE GCGA became "BLUE-UTILITY-DOG" earning his third leg with a First Place!!!! This was not a journey I had planned on taking. When I started utility lessons with my sweet Phazer and Dave Parison, he asked me what I planned on doing with Blue now that he had earned his CDX. I said nothing as I felt he simply did not have the temperament to make it and after all, he was truly Shawn's dog; not emotionally bonded to me. The whole family had joined me that particular night and Blue happened to be in the van as I did not want to leave him home alone. Dave just said- "get him" and our journey began! A huge thank you to Dave for all of his patience and always believing we would be able to reach this amazing goal! Thank you also to Liz Hixon for her help at Glenbard. It is such an amazing feeling to have finally clicked with Blue to earn my first UD since 2007 and see him earn his entry into the Glenbard Hall of Fame!

In keeping up with Blue, Windy on the same day earned her CDX also with a first place under Judge Anna Lorenz! I am so proud of Windy for working so well at such a young age. Off to Utility A next for Windy and Blue will start a new path with John Henry, my own little junior handler, in Scent Work but still joining us every Monday at Glenbard to stay in good form!

Brought to you by  DVMmultimedia™ www.DVMmultimedia.com

NO DAMP TRAMPS

If you use a garment like a dog sweater, always make sure it stays dry and change it if it becomes damp. Wet clothing can actually make a pet colder.

GET A CHECKUP

Bring your pet in for an exam. Cold weather can exacerbate health issues, so getting a checkup is important even for pets that seem healthy.

CATS LOVE CARS

Cats are attracted to the warmth of cars, so make sure to always tap on the hood to alert any sleeping animals that could be injured when the car starts.

MICROCHIP

Snow can affect a pet's sense of smell and ability to find their way, so microchip your pet and give them an identification tag so they can be returned to you.

EMERGENCY

Cold weather can also result in some emergency situations like power outages. Make sure you have an emergency plan for your family that includes your pet.

Top 3 Cold Weather Tips for Pets

A fur coat does not mean a warm pet.

If it's too cold for you, it's too cold for your pet. Keep them indoors as much as possible.

Protect and inspect your pet's paws.

After being outside, wash and dry your pet's paws (and stomach) to remove ice, salt and chemicals.

Never leave pets in a cold car.

Animals that are young, old, ill or thin are particularly susceptible to cold environments.
