PRESIDENT'S REPORT by Jim Clarke

When you hear the phrase "Most wonderful time of the year," most people automatically think of Christmas. However, for people in the dog-training world it has another meaning. It means that their dogs have finally titled and there is an award in their future. Congratulations to all who earned their titles during the November trials. Keep up the good work! And, to those of you who are still trying, remember, it isn't December 31 yet. There are still titles to be earned.

Donna Eichman, thank you so much for a job well done. I am proud to say that once again, GABOC hosted another successful Obedience Trial. Even though there were two last-minute glitches, Donna remained calm and handled the setbacks with competence. Panic could have set in when, one week before the trial, a judge had to cancel due to an injury. The search was on for another judge. The second setback arose when the caterer, with whom we have done business for years, decided that he was retiring and he would not be available. Donna Eichman did not panic. She took care of every detail with expertise and efficiency. Donna will be the first to tell you that she did not do the trial alone. And, she is right. While it might take a village to raise a child, it takes many hands to host an obedience trial. Thank you everyone that helped to make our trial successful.

While Karen Heitz will not be returning to our board, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank her so much for her service. As a board member, Karen served as Registrar, Calendar Chairman, and Audit Committee Chairman. Many jobs well done!

Congratulations to Marytherese Marosits and Ed Gegenheimer who were elected to the board for a three-year term.

I have to admit to an oversight that I made during the election portion of the November 22 Membership meeting. I neglected to have the Nominating Committee Chairman call for an acclimation vote for the officers who were running unopposed for another one-year term. Hopefully, I am correct by saying that those who were at the meeting would have voted for the already seated officers. I apologize for my failure to follow by-law procedure. We allow for our dogs to "mess up." Now it was my turn.

Christmas Party, December 16. Always good food and good times. Thank you so much Candy Ellis and Laura Plasketes for, once again, hosting this annual event. This will be the last night of training until January 6.

For those of you who are working toward 2019 Awards, the deadline to get your form to me is January 15. Award forms can be found in this issue of Barks or on our website under "Forms."

TRICK DOG SHOW TROOP

Tired of the same old old thing?

Tattoo might have seen her last obedience show. I am ready for a change and would like to try something fun and exciting! I wanted to see if there was any interest in putting together a good trick show. We could put on shows for charity or maybe make some money for the club.

If interested catch me at training, email me at setarl@sbcglobal.net, call me at (630) 260-0051, or text at (630) 533-2108

Date: October 25, 2019

Subject: 2019 Internal Audit Committee Report

To: GABOC Board of Directors and Members:

On behalf of the members of GABOC the Audit Committee (per Article V, section 5c of the bylaws) conducted a two-year audit commencing on December 2016 through July 2019. An internal audit has not been completed for many years and the committee believed it would be in the best interest of the club to cover an extended time period.

The initial audit was held on July 23rd at the home of Karen Heitz. All requested members were present except for Laura Setar. Laura was updated to the events of the meeting and received all handouts.

The scope of the audit was to ensure the financial records are in appropriate order. The key priorities included the evaluation of internal financial controls, increased membership transparency, and to determine why GABOC continues to lose funds at an alarming rate.

Prior to the audit a letter was sent to Donna requesting various financial documents including the original checkbook, bank statements, and documentation. The treasurer submitted all requested information, a written explanation of the Treasurer's job description, answered all questions to the best of her abilities, and explained the cash flow process in detail. Several of the suggestions for increased financial controls were immediately put into process.

After careful analysis and discussion of the data, it was determined the monthly Treasurer's report does not balance or accurately reflect GABOC's finances based on bank information. Also, QuickBooks was not being utilized to generate spreadsheets and financial reports.

The audit committee reworked the numbers to assure the monies were appropriately allocated and determined that all monies were accounted for. However, a critical evaluation determined a much larger and more serious loss exists than was previously reported.

GABOC has many opportunities to positively impact its financial position and prevent the depletion of liquid assets. It is highly suggested a financial committee be initiated and GABOC work within the confines of a balanced budget. The next audit should be conducted in January 2021 and yearly thereafter.

This report and the attached recommendations are submitted to GABOC for review and approval.

When the "Instructions for Stewards" was emailed to those who volunteered it said, "You are the face of our trial." Let me tell you how beautiful those faces were! All of our stewards were so amazing. Not only did they make GABOC look good but they made all three judges, and Donna Eichman, very happy.

There were a few who only had to steward for a short time. There were others who stewarded for hours; and, several who were on the schedule for both days. A number were asked to steward in areas that were unfamiliar, i.e., Utility and Rally. After the schedule was emailed to everyone comments such as, "Utility! I can't do Utility!" "I've never done this before!" were heard. However, afterward these same people said, "This was so fun!" "I learned so much!" "Thank you for asking; it was a blast!" There were several people who were on the sub list that had to be called upon at the last minute. Additionally, there were two ladies that weren't even on the stewarding schedule but pitched in both Saturday and Sunday in order to set up the various Rally courses.
