IT'S GETTIN' WINDY 'ROUND HERE

PRESIDENT'S REPORT by Jim Clarke

SEPTEMBER – There is so much to love about September—we think of September as the beginning of fall. The days will start to get cooler, the trees will begin to change color, and there are new fragrances in the air that remind us of the changing seasons. Those of us who love our dog training will do so with renewed energy and enthusiasm. The fall trials are about to begin. We need to be prepared.

On a very hot Saturday, August 4, four of our members and their dogs hosted a GABOC booth at Cantigny Park in Wheaton. Thank you Kathy Bianchetti for making the arrangements. A huge thank you goes to Donna Eichman, John Hudson, Francis Soresi, and Karen Heitz for spending the day distributing literature and talking to visitors about the importance of obedience training at GABOC.

There are two more opportunities for you to not only help our club, but for you to fulfill an award requirement. Cheri Nicholas has made arrangements for GABOC to man a booth on Saturday, September 8 at the Arboretum's "Tails on the Trails." Cheri needs volunteers for three, 2-hour time slots. Kathy Bianchetti is also looking for volunteers to man our GABOC booth, 2-hour time slots, at Pets-A-Palooza, Mooseheart Child City School, Batavia, on Sunday, September 16. If you are available for Pets-A-Palooza contact Kathy at crazdoglady@att.net.

Have you taken the time to look over the GABOC Apparel order form? Do you know what items interest you the most? If not, you will get an opportunity to see apparel samples at the sign-in table beginning Monday, September 10. The last date to order apparel will be Monday, October 15. T-shirts, sweatshirts, jackets—we have it all. All checks should be payable to GABOC.

Do you ever wonder how you and your dog are progressing? Our instructors encourage you to check out your training development by entering correction matches. I'd like to persuade you to sign up for the Tuesday, September 11, Correction Match. If you haven't had a chance to preregister, Match Secretary, Laura Setar, will gladly register you at the door.

A VST Tracking Test is scheduled for Sunday, September 30. For more information visit our website or talk to John and Darlene Barnard. Besides her normal "tracking" hat, Darlene was kind enough fill in for Joyce as Assistant in the 6:45 Novice II Obedience Class during the month of August. Joyce says, "Thank you, Darlene. I'm guessing you had a good time working with Karen Schlipf."

"Stewards are needed!" "Stewards are needed!" You're undoubtedly going to get sick of hearing those words. Our November is approaching so Bette McMillan and Joyce Clarke will be putting the pressure on by asking you for your help. "You can run; but, you can't hide!" If you don't know anything about an obedience trial or being a steward, this will give you a golden opportunity to learn. Also, don't forget, working the trial will fulfill an awards requirement. It's all good!

Our next General/Board meeting will be held on Friday, September 7, 7:00, at the home of Jan Jakubiak, 885 Buttonwood Cr, Naperville, 60540—630-983-6127. Please let Jan know if you will be attending.

Bette McMillan and Joyce Clarke will once again be asking you to volunteer to steward at the...

Saturday and Sunday, November 3 & 4

Please say

yes

We count on your support!

Look for the sign-up sheets on the sign-in table beginning Monday, September 10. Or, if you would like to contact either Bette or Joyce to let them know that you are pumped, ready, and willing to steward, that would be fantastic.

Liz Hixon

So, I was asked to write a little bit about how I started with Glenbard and what I do with my dogs. Well, here it goes...

My first experience with Glenbard All Breed Obedience Club was many years ago around 1986 when my family got our first puppy. It was a Chesapeake Bay Retriever named Coco. I was pregnant at the time with my third and last daughter, so my husband brought her to puppy and then beginner classes. Our instructor was Esther Purtriskis. Little did I know that I would come to know Esther very well years later as a member of the Medallion Rottweiler Club. Coco loved it and did very well. She loved to work. Had I known then what I know now, I would have continued and shown her in obedience as she would have done very well. She was a family pet and spoiled rotten but never competed in obedience.

Fast Forward a little over 10 years while I was training and trialing my first rottweiler Xena, I would come to the correction matches at Glenbard. They were very crowded back then as were all the trials.

My first two rottweilers, Xena and Rebel

After I lost my Xena at the age of 15, I rescued a female rottweiler and named her Roxie. Roxie had been through a lot and needed something to help build her confidence. That's when I came back to Glenbard and signed up for Dawn's beginner class. Dawn Parison and Lynn Weiss were so good with her. She was enjoying being there. We then moved up to Dave's Novice II class. She did very well and enjoyed the attention.

My sweet Roxie

Fast forward again to my new male rottweiler pup named Flynn!

Flynn's first night home
from Texas,
November
2014.

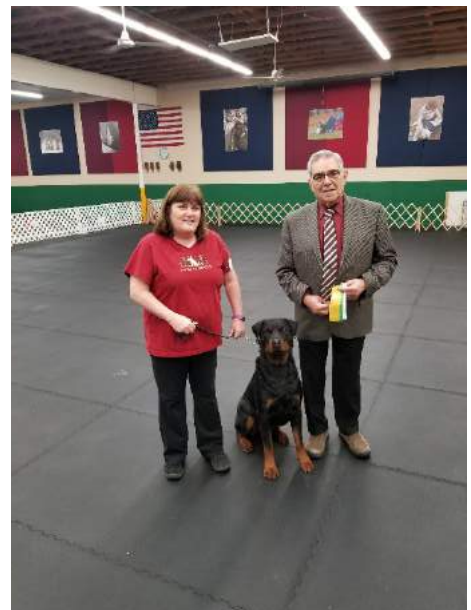

About 6 months old here.

While I started his training at a facility closer to home for his first two puppy classes, I then started private lessons with Dave Parison. Since he was an instructor at Glenbard as well, he encouraged me to bring Flynn for additional training in the Novice II class on Monday nights. So, we started training on Monday nights as well. Occasionally I would help by filling in for instructors. Then sadly when Lynn Weis got sick she asked me if I would take over the Utility run-thrus at 8:15 and lock up the building. I did that, and I still do so every week. Flynn's obedience career has gone very well with the help and guidance of my trainer Dave Parison as well as help and tips I've received from various Glenbard members.

Flynn earned his UDX on 1/28/18 at 3 years of age.

In May of 2017 Flynn and I were joined by his baby sister Teagan! Teagan and Flynn are half-siblings.

Teagan!

Teagan started right away with my trainer Dave Parison and at Glenbard. She is doing very well and is starting her obedience career. Look for her in the novice ring soon!

Flynn pulling our first cart, the converted bike trailer

Besides obedience, I have been involved with tracking. I started with my first rottweiler Xena and have tracked with every rottweiler since. Xena was a natural tracker from the age of 12 weeks. She went on to become a Champion Tracker at the age of 10.5 years! I also earned tracking titles on my next rottweiler, Rebel. He earned his TD and TDX, but I lost him before he earned his VST title. I also tracked with my rescue Roxie although she never earned any titles, it was great for boosting her confidence.

I continue to track with my current dogs, Flynn and Teagan. They are doing very well and will be ready soon to be certified so they can enter their first tracking test.

My newest activity that I am doing with my dogs is Carting! It's so much fun! I started by converting a bike trailer into a cart for Flynn to pull last fall. Then as I started to look online at companies that make and sell carts for quite a bit of money, I thought, I can make that! So, I made a couple different carts. I made my first one lighter and smaller for training for both Flynn and Teagan. Since Teagan is now over a year old she has started carting with the smaller and lighter cart and she loves it!

Here are some pictures of them with the carts. Medallion Rottweiler Club has a carting test this October that they are entered in. Wish us luck! We are doing lots of long walks pulling the carts for practice.

Teagan pulling the next cart that I made using a wooden crate.

Flynn pulling the newest cart that I made from scratch.

This summer, in addition to continued training in obedience and Teagan making her debut in the novice ring, and practicing their tracking and carting, they are relaxing and enjoying themselves in the pool.

I am also a member of the Medallion Rottweiler Club and have been for over 20 years, also the American Rottweiler Club and Thorncreek Tracking Club, where I am on the board.

My newest jobs with Glenbard as of June of this year is Vice President and Membership Chair. This is a big job and I hope I can do it well. We'll see what the future brings.

I have enjoyed my time at Glenbard All Breed Obedience Club. I have made many new friends and so have my dogs!

you take during training and want to share it send it to Chuck Holtzen.

It can be a cute pic, a working pic, a working video.
Thanks!

Linkville's Mystery Writer "Beckett"

This is a painting of our Newfoundland Beckett. It was a gift from a very dear friend, Johnson Simon. Johnson is a disabled artist. He has Cerebral Palsy. Johnson was considered a "throw away kid". He grew up in Miami, FL. His high school thought he had an IQ of about 70. He was finally able to graduate from high school and attend Western Michigan University for his BFA where he graduated Cum Laude. He then went on to Graduate School at IUPUI in Indianapolis, IN. He graduated with Honors this past May with an MFA. If you would like to learn more about Johnson please watch a video that a fellow classmate Directed his last semester at WMU. It is called Painting Dreams: The Story of Johnson Simon. It can be found at this link <https://youtu.be/tFpMTpQ15VU>. His website is www.artbyjohnsonsimon.com. He has a Facebook page Art by Johnson Simon and an Instagram account @artbyjohnsonsimon.

Johnson totally captured Beckett's personality in this painting.

She crossed the Rainbow Bridge a few years ago.

This painting always makes me smile remembering her.
